Speakers

Jeremy Browne
CEO - Canning House

From 2010 to 2012, Jeremy served as Minister of State for Latin America in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office. Since leaving elected office, Jeremy has served as the City of London Corporation's Special Representative to the EU, worked as an International Business Ambassador for Aberdeen Standard Investments (abrdn), and advised the environmental investment firm Renewity.

Paul Ekins

Professor of Resources & Environmental Policy - Institute for Sustainable Resources, UCL

Paul has extensive experience consulting for business, government and international organisations. His academic work focuses on conditions and policies for achieving an environmentally sustainable economy. He was a member of the European Resource Efficiency Platform, Vice-Chair of the previous European Environment Commissioner's Expert Economists' Group on resource efficiency and a Co-Chair of the UN Environment Programme (UNEP)'s sixth Global Environment Outlook. He has been a member of UNEP's International Resource Panel (IRP) since 2013.

Silvio Lima

Head of Corporate Affairs, ESG & Community Engagement - Appian Capital Advisory

Silvio joined Appian Capital Advisory from Appian Capital Brazil, where he was Director of Corporate Affairs, People, and HSE since 2019. He has over 16 years' experience in metals and mining, leading complex communication and engagement projects in a multi-stakeholder environment. Before joining Appian, Silvio held executive positions at Accenture Strategy Consulting, serving global clients in the corporate affairs space. He also worked for Anglo American in Brazil supporting the Minas-Rio system and the nickel operations in the Social Performance space, and was part of Kinross Brasil, where he served as Director of Corporate Affairs.

Ros Lund

Clean Mining Lead - Department for International Trade (DIT), UK Government

Helping UK mining companies export technology and expertise and invest in overseas projects, Ros is also responsible for attracting UK investment to support clean growth. She was part of the team responsible for the publication of the UK Critical Mineral Strategy in July 2022. Ros has directed over 50 mining conferences, and created Mining on Top - a conference focused on mining's role in development. Previously, Ros worked for American Express and Barclaycard in a variety of business and commercial roles. She is on the advisory board of Women in Mining Kazakhstan.

Richard Morgan

Head of Government Relations - Anglo American

Richard is based in London, covering global political and sustainability issues in countries where Anglo American has mining operations: Southern Africa (platinum, iron ore and thermal coal, diamonds via De Beers and copper exploration in Zambia and Angola), Brazil (nickel and iron ore), Chile and Peru (copper) and Australia (steel-making coal). There are also projects underway in Finland and the United Kingdom. Richard was previously with the UK Foreign Office with postings in Japan, South Africa and France. He was seconded to Unilever from 2005-2008 covering Africa, the Middle East and Turkey.

Ana Carolina Salomão

Partner - Pogust Goodhead

Pogust Goodhead is a global law firm dedicated to championing justice under the slogan 'Changing the world, one case at a time'. Ana Carolina deals with investors, structuring the financial deals that fund transnational and local cases of human rights, consumer protection, environmental damage and climate litigation. Ana Carolina is co-founder of DreamS Foundation, a charity that supports the fundraising of other non-profits, and sits on the board of the Projeto Gauss endowment fund.

Jon Samuel

Group Head Responsible Business Partnerships, Anglo American

Jon focuses on the Ethical Value Chains and Thriving Communities elements of Anglo American's Sustainable Mining Plan, including continuing to ramp-up its socio-economic development work, pursuing financing opportunities in the sustainability space, and building on Anglo American's leadership position in responsible mining standards. Jon engages regularly with investors, customers, unions and NGOs on responsible mining issues and is Anglo American's lead representative at the International Council on Mining and Metals.

Christian Spano

Director of Innovation - International Council on Mining and Metals (ICMM)

Christian started his career in Latin America in the forestry and energy sectors, before moving to renewables and power and then to the mining and metals industry. At Anglo American, Christian gained experience of working on innovation in a socio-economic development context. This was followed by roles at World Economic Forum and Systemic where he focused on business models, regulation and finance. He has also been exposed to impact investing where he has had the chance to support disruptive technologies entering the mining and metals space.

Philipa Varris

Head of Sustainability - Horizonte Minerals plc

Philipa has held leadership positions in environment, health, safety and community management in the mining sector for over 25 years. She received the Australian Centenary Medal for leadership in Australia's largest community consultation and strategic vision development initiative, was recognized in 2020 as one of the WIM UK 100 Global Inspirational Women in Mining, and has led several teams awarded for their ESG practices. She is a Non-Executive Director of EnviroGold Global and a member of the UK Committee of the Australian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.
