Why Canning House?

If you are looking at Latin America, then you need to talk to Canning House. We cover all aspects of trading and investing in Latin America, and we go way beyond the headlines.

Canning House has been working with Latin America for over 75 years – we understand Latin America like no one else. We passionately believe that, in order to fully understand commercial risks and opportunities, you have to understand the Region in the round – how history and culture influence social trends, how social trends affect politics, how the political agenda dictates the economic consequences, and how all of the factors impact the climate for trade and investment in Latin America.

Our reports and events are backed up by deep expertise from our wide network of advisors. We seek not to preach but to inform – so that you are empowered to take your own decisions as to whether (or not) Latin America is right for you, and where in the Region to focus. As a corporate member, we and our associates and experts will walk with you all the way to make sure you stay informed and make the best contacts to realise your business ambitions.

About us

Canning House's Mission is to build understanding and relationships between the UK, Latin America & Iberia.

We are the UK's leading forum for contacts, thought-leadership and pragmatic debate on Latin American political, economic and social trends and issues, and business risks and opportunities.

We publish newsletters and in-depth reports; and we convene insightful geopolitical, socioeconomic and business conferences and seminars to raise awareness and understanding, aid policy-making and disseminate best practice, and offer unrivalled networking opportunities.
